

YOU DO
HAVE THE LAST WORD!

Dr. Ronni Sanlo www.ronnisanlo.com

*In loving memory of . . .
ME!?*

Writing
Your Own
Obituary

www.ValerieBiel.com

BETTY CROCKER DEAD AT 88; RICH BUT NO LONGER MOIST

Was Successful Marketer Despite Inability to Think Outside of the Box

MINNEAPOLIS (AP) — Kitchen icon Betty Crocker failed to rise this morning. She was 88. She was the go-to gal for one-box sensations that sated hungry husbands everywhere. Crocker was a good cook too. In her will, she asked to be mixed with 2 eggs and 1/2 cup oil, mixed for 3 minutes on high speed, spread evenly, topped with walnuts, and cremated at 1350 degrees for 45 minutes.

Dr. Ronni Sanlo www.ronnisanlo.com

Information

- Full legal name
- Nickname
- Birthdate
- Birthplace
- City and state of residence at death
- Name of significant other
- Full names of parents and siblings
- Names of those who preceded you in death
- Names of those surviving
- Funeral or memorial details if known

How to Write your Obituary

- Name on tombstone
- How did you make the world a better place
- How will people remember you

Dr. Ronni Sanlo www.ronnisanlo.com

Who Are you?

- who is the real me?
- What are the 'temptations,' distractions, or possibilities that I said 'no' to
- Who will miss me the most

Create a memorable
obituary

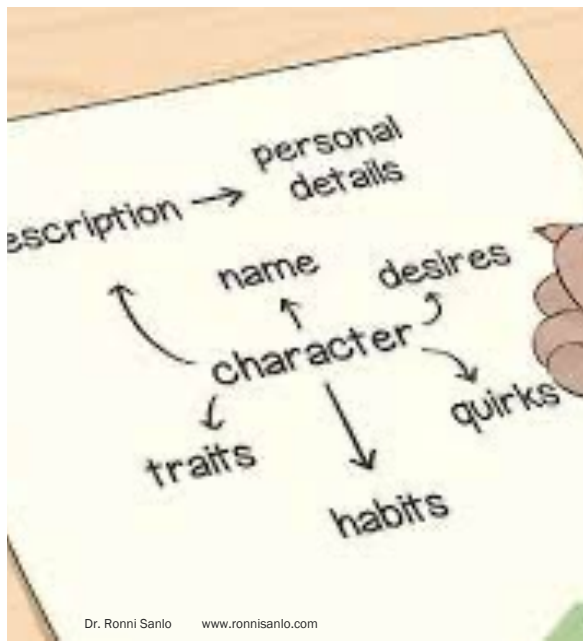

Dr. Ronni Sanlo www.ronnisanlo.com

Bold

Sentimental

Humorous

Honest

Write a draft

- If I died today, would I die happy?
- Am I satisfied with the direction in which my life is headed?
- Am I happy with the legacy I'm creating?
- What's missing from my life?
- What do I need to do in order for my obituary to be "complete"?